Know More, Get Better
with help from Relias Requirements Tracker

Some Requirements Aren't Courses. Track Them Anyway.

Ever struggle to keep track of your staff's non-training requirements, like professional licenses or CPR and First Aid certificates? If so, you may be putting your compliance at risk.

Relias Requirements Tracker helps automate this process within the Relias learning management system, improving accuracy, safeguarding your organization and making sure your professionals can continue providing excellent care.

No Room for Error. More Room for Accuracy.

Don't be caught off-guard during a survey or audit. With non-training data just as easily accessible as your usual training data, reports can be produced in seconds, saving a significant amount of time and reducing the potential for errors.

Key Benefits

Avoid Costly Mistakes

Reduce Administrative Work

Improve Accuracy of Records

Improve Process Effectiveness

KEY APPLICATIONS

Hands-On Certifications: Including CPR, First Aid, and other hands-on required trainings.

Driver's Licenses: Including tracking expiration dates for compliance purposes and individuals required to drive as part of their role.

Professional Licenses: Including RNs, LPNs, LCSWs, BCBAs, RBTs, and others.

Routine Screenings: Including immunizations, annual physicals, random or regular drug screens, and other items (PHI excluded).
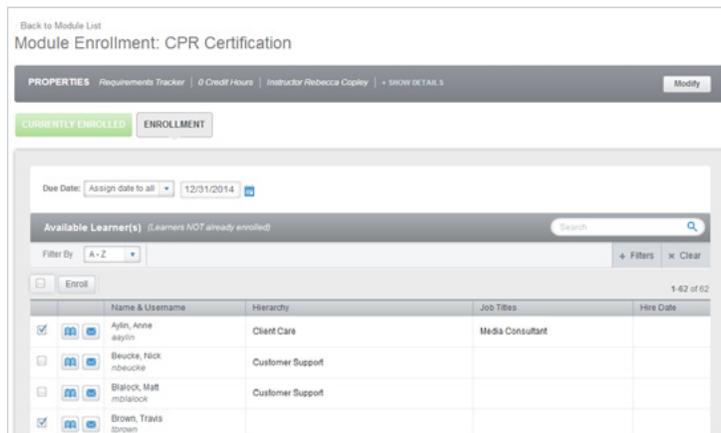

Key Features

Modules: Use Requirements Tracker just as you would a learning module within the Relias learning management system to assign and track non-training requirements for each employee.

Attachments: Enable staff, supervisors and system admins to upload and view multiple files per employee.

Notifications: Send automated emails to supervisors to notify them when an employee submits an attachment.

Reporting: Gain deeper visibility into submitted non-training requirements at the organizational and individual level.

Easily view and enroll staff into a Requirements Tracker module and assign a due date within one screen.

Relias Requirements Tracker simplifies the way you keep track of your staff's non-training requirements, for example, professional licenses, to maintain compliance and ensure continued care provided without interruption.
